NEW YORK, NY, April 3, 2014 - The Pollock-Krasner Foundation, Inc. has reaffirmed its mission of supporting individual artists worldwide. The Pollock-Krasner Foundation, Inc. is pleased to announce that a grant has been awarded to Danielle Eubank. This grant supports the artist's living and working expenses for one year. Since its inception in 1985, the Foundation has awarded over 60 million dollars to artists in 76 countries.

Pollock-Krasner grants have enabled artists to create new work, purchase needed materials and pay for studio rent, as well as personal and medical expenses. Past recipients of Pollock-Krasner grants acknowledge their impact in allowing concentrated time for studio work, and in preparing for exhibitions and other professional opportunities, which have advanced their careers.

Grants are awarded internationally based on artistic merit and financial need to professional visual artists. Painters, sculptors, printmakers and artists who work on paper are eligible to apply. Artists interested in applying should visit our website at www.pkf.org to view and complete our online application.

The Pollock-Krasner Foundation was established in 1985 to assist individual working artists of merit with financial need through the generosity of Lee Krasner (1908-1984), a leading abstract expressionist painter and widow of Jackson Pollock.
